

Brass Clinic with Mic Gillette & Tommy Davidson

Sunday, April 11
1:00PM - 3:00PM

$45 per spot

Calling every young brass musician in Lafayette – want to get inspired, improve your playing, and help LASF at the same time?

Open to any student playing the trumpet, trombone, tuba or French horn in grades 4-12. Whether you are a beginner or advanced player, you owe it to yourself to take advantage of this rare opportunity to participate in a brass music clinic with professional musicians and educators: Mic Gillette, leader of the world-renowned Tower of Power horn section, and LASF's own Tommy Davidson.

Join us for a spectacular learning experience with these musical greats. Every student will walk away from this music clinic with invaluable lessons learned, smiles and inspiration to last a lifetime.

ALL PROCEEDS GO DIRECTLY TO LASF.

Sign-up online at www.lasf.org/signup_parties_2010.html or call the LASF office at 925-299-1644.

Sponsored by Lamorinda Music. 100 spots available but clinic requires 50 students minimum.
